Montana Luxury at its Finest

The layout of this property insures comfort for everyone! This townhome is 4 levels, with the highest level as the master suite with king bed, flat screen TV and private bath featuring a large tile shower with bench and granite counters. The open, over sized family room, on the main level, has a gas fireplace, beautiful hardwood floors, and excellent views. There are 2 decks off of this room with outdoor seating and a gas grill. The dining area is also open to this room and seats 8. The large kitchen, complete with granite counters, is perfect for families and for entertaining. Downstairs you will find the second master suite with a queen bed, private bath, and flat screen TV. Bedroom 3 and 4 are also on this level with a full bath on the hallway. Bedroom 3 has two twin beds and Bedroom 4 has a queen bed. The bonus bunkroom is only half a flight of stairs below this level with a set of twin bunk beds. There are flat screen TV's in every room. The outdoor hot tub sits on the lower level deck and offers amazing privacy and unbeatable views of the Spanish Peaks. The closest airport in ? is just ? away.

Things To Do

When people think of Montana, the first thing that comes to mind for many is skiing, and The Wolf's Den is certainly fantastically situated for that, with its ski-in/ski-out access to BOTH Moonlight Basin and Big Sky Resort. But in truth, there is beautiful scenery and plenty of activities all year round. For starters, it's located only one hour from Yellowstone Park, with its geysers, hot springs and myriad activities. It is also an hour away from Bozeman, which houses the Museum of the Rockies, the Emerson Center for Arts and Culture and numerous restaurants and art galleries. Even closer at hand are a host of activities to choose from, including:

- Fishing in one of the planets highest concentration of world class, wild fish fly fishing waters.
- Hiking, including the Ousel Falls Trail
- Visiting the Big Sky Chapel
- Mountain biking
- White water rafting
- Horseback riding
- Zip line tours
- Rock climbing
- Boating
- Nature and wildlife tours
- Three golf courses to choose from
- Spas
- Yoga and Pilates
